

We Research the Market

The table below is a snapshot of the New Zealand banks, direct or advised, on-sale and recently closed products, that we currently research, and how to find them on Quotemonster.

Many insurers offer a limited selection of products in their Life, Health, and Disability insurance suite. Our table below highlights the selections you'll need to make to include these products in your standard Research or Head to Head comparison. Products recently withdrawn are distinguished with a (W) and we aim to move them to the Standalone Head to Head feature 18 months after closure, when applicable.
